

CHURCH NOTES

Methodist Church

Sunday school at 9:45. Epworth League at 6:45. Preaching service at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Rev. J. E. Fisher will preach again next Sunday morning. The people are earnestly invited to come out and hear him.

Sunday night a fine musical program will be given by representatives of the Conservatory of Music at Highland Park. This will be well worth hearing. Free to everybody.

The pastor, who is holding meetings at Arlington, will be home next Monday.

The choir is working on its Easter program of music. Every member of the choir is urged to be on hand at every rehearsal, Friday nights.

A special program of Sunday night sermons will begin April 13. Watch for further notice.

The Torrance branch of the Highland Park Conservatory of Music will give a musical program at the Methodist church Sunday night. The following members of the faculty will appear: Dr. Emil Winkler, piano; Miss Francis Harrington, piano; Mrs. Wright, piano; Mrs. Anson Clapper, violin; Mrs. Hedger, accompanist; Mr. and Mrs. McDade, vocal.

First Baptist Church of Torrance

Rev. J. Whitfield Green, pastor. Jesus said "Be ye also ready, for in an hour that ye think not the Son of Man cometh." Why take chances?

Some risk to prove themselves "game." Gambling is stealing; wrong use of time and talents is as bad. A bold defiance of sin marks an ill-balanced mind. If sin is ever necessary God is not a Father, but a fiend. Why take chances in ruining the soul's happiness here, and meeting a bitter tomorrow after death? Love only asks best effort; righteousness reaps reward. Warm up the heart at the First Baptist home church, where you are cordially invited to come and worship with us.

Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Morning service, 11. B. Y. P. U., 6:45 p. m. Evening song service, 7:30.

Wednesday evening, prayer meeting.

Christ Mission, Episcopal

Holy communion at 9 a. m. on the first Sunday in the month.

Morning prayer and sermon at 11 a. m. on other Sundays.

Services are held for the present at 2018 Carson street. All are welcome.

We will be glad to have the names of any Episcopalians not affiliated with the mission. Telephone 39.

Christian Church

American Legion hall. W. T. Adams, pastor; Scott Ludlow, superintendent of Bible school.

"Forsake not the assembling of yourselves together as the manner of some is," says the Word of God. "If ye love Me ye will keep my commandments," says Christ.

It is Christ's command that we meet on the first day of the week, the Lord's Day. Next Sunday will be a high day for the Christian church in Torrance. Every member of the church should be at the morning services.

C. R. Hudson will be with us next Sunday morning and deliver the message. Mr. Hudson is the state secretary. It is important that every tary of missions for Southern California of the church be out to the services next Sunday morning.

Bible school at 9:45 a. m. Church services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

The public is cordially invited to attend all the services of the church.

Central Evangelical Church

Francis A. Koller, pastor. "The Supreme Question of the Day" will be the theme for the morning sermon. "A Meditation" will be the evening theme. The hours are 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

The big Sunday school will meet at 9:45. The C. E. gathers for service at 6:45 p. m. Orchestra rehearsal on Tuesday evening. Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening. Choir on Thursday evening.

Plans are being made to observe Passion week with appropriate services each evening. The holy communion will be observed on Easter morning. New members will be received at that time. The choir will give an Easter cantata in the evening.

Welcome to all the services at all times.

TORRANCE NOTES
